KSA Client Information Checklist

A neutral checklist for Saudi Arabia based onboarding. Confirm the details that apply to your own account and servicing entity.

Confirm who provides the service

- Read the legal entity name and contact details in the account documents.
- Check that the website and account communication match the entity identified in your documents.
- Ask ECN1 support which entity is responsible for the account if this is unclear.

Review eligibility and products

- Confirm whether account onboarding is available for your residence and client type.
- Check which products and instruments are enabled for the account.
- Review product risks, costs, leverage, margin, and execution disclosures before trading.

Prepare onboarding information

- Use accurate identity and contact details.
- Follow the verification steps presented in the client area.
- Use only the payment methods presented as available for your account.
- Keep a copy of account documents and support correspondence.

Language and support

Check whether the required account, risk, and platform information is available in a language you understand. Ask support to clarify any term you cannot confidently interpret.

Important

This checklist does not state that ECN1 is licensed, authorised, or available in Saudi Arabia. It is not legal, tax, or investment advice. Confirm the current entity, eligibility, and applicable disclosures directly before onboarding.
